Big Voices Childcare Services LTD may collect this information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be collected through application forms; obtained from your passport or other identity documents such as your driving licence; from forms completed by you at the start of or during employment (such as benefit nomination forms); from correspondence with you; or through interviews, meetings or other assessments.

In some cases, we may collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers, occupational health practitioners or the employee's own medical practitioner, and information from criminal records checks permitted by law.

Big Voices Childcare Services LTD seeks information from third parties with your consent only.

Data will be stored in a range of different places, including in your personnel file, in Big Voices Childcare Services LTD online HR management systems and in other IT systems such as Big Voices Childcare Services SharePoint and emails.

Why do Big Voices Childcare Services LTD process personal data?

We need to process data to enter into an employment contract with you and to meet its obligations under your employment contract. For example, it needs to process your data to provide you with an employment contract, to pay you in accordance with your employment contract and to administer pension and entitlements.

In some cases, Big Voices Childcare Services LTD needs to process data to ensure that we are complying with our legal obligations. For example, it is required to check an employee's entitlement to work in the UK, to deduct tax, to comply with health and safety laws and to enable employees to take periods of leave to which they are entitled.

In other cases, Big Voices Childcare Services LTD has a legitimate interest in processing personal data before, during and after the end of the employment relationship. Processing employee data allows us to:

- run recruitment and promotion processes;
- to fulfil our statutory reporting duties;
- maintain accurate and up-to-date employment records and contact details (including details of who to contact in the event of an emergency), and records of employee contractual and statutory rights;
- operate and keep a record of disciplinary and grievance processes, to ensure acceptable conduct within the workplace;
- operate and keep a record of employee performance and related processes, to plan for career development, and for succession planning and workforce management purposes;
- operate and keep a record of absence and absence management procedures, to allow effective workforce management and ensure that employees are receiving the pay or other benefits to which they are entitled;
- obtain occupational health advice, to ensure that it complies with duties in relation to individuals with disabilities, meet its obligations under health and safety law, to provide support for employee's to effectively manage long and short term absence, and ensure that employees are receiving the pay to which they are entitled;

- operate and keep a record of other types of leave (including maternity, paternity, adoption, parental and shared parental leave), to allow effective workforce management, to ensure that Big Voices Childcare Services LTD complies with duties in relation to leave entitlement, and to ensure that employees are receiving the pay or other benefits to which they are entitled;
- ensure effective general HR and business administration;
- to monitor learning and development and measure the effectiveness of training courses;
- provide references on request for current or former employees; and
- Respond to and defend against legal claims.

Special categories of personal data or Criminal records data

Special categories of personal data such as information about health or medical conditions, is processed to carry out employment law obligations such as those in relation to employees with disabilities. Big Voices Childcare Services LTD may obtain occupational health advice, to ensure that it complies with duties in relation to individuals with disabilities, meet its obligations under health and safety law and to provide support for employees to effectively manage long and short-term absence.

Absence data is held securely on the HR Management system and is confidentially destroyed or deleted after 2 rolling years. Both Partners have access to this information on the system, through a secure log in.

Medical or Occupational Health reports are retained in the employees personal file for a rolling 2 year period from the date it was obtained or the duration of employment if we have a duty to make reasonable adjustments. Access to this information is restricted to Business Partners only.

Where appropriate, medical information will be shared with Senior Staff to implement reasonable adjustments or support relating to medical conditions or to manage health and safety.

Information relating to an employee's health condition may be shared with an Occupational Health provider should a medical referral be requested. In this instance, Big Voices Childcare Services will also seek explicit consent to process this data.

Where Big Voices Childcare Services LTD processes other special categories of personal data, such as information about ethnic origin, sexual orientation or religion or belief, this is done for the purposes of equal opportunities monitoring.

Data that we use for this purpose is collected with the express consent of employees, which can be withdrawn at any time by notifying one of our Partners in writing.

Equal opportunities data is anonymised for reporting purposes. Employees are entirely free to decide whether or not to provide such data and there are no consequences for failing to do so. Results will be recorded by our Partners in a secure format and retained for 5 years for trend analysis.

Data on gender is gathered on the Vacancy Filled form when the employee commences employment for the purposes of anonymised monthly reports and statutory reporting on gender pay gaps.

This information is only accessed for this purpose. This data is held securely on our HR management system for the duration of employment and 7 years after employment ends.

Big Voices Childcare Services LTD are obliged to seek information about criminal convictions and offences for successful job applicants and do 3 yearly update checks for current employees.

This information is processed by Disclosure Scotland, which is an Executive Agency of the Scottish Government and runs on behalf of Scottish Ministers. Where Big Voices Childcare Services LTD seeks this information, it does so because it is necessary for it to carry out its obligations and exercise specific rights in relation to statutory legal obligations and the requirements of our regulatory bodies.

Membership or certificate number, date the check was carried out, and expiry date are all recorded on the password protected HR

Management System. Certificates are stored in a secure filing system and destroyed and replaced after any update has been carried out. The certificates of those leaving the organisation will be destroyed one month after the leaving date.

If a relevant conviction is declared a Risk Assessment exercise is undertaken by the Co-Ordinator, which is then authorised by both Partners. The risk assessment documentation will be retained with the certificate in a secure storage system, separate from the employee file for 3 years until the next scheduled update is carried out.

If the outcome of a risk assessment results in the termination of employment, the Risk Assessment paperwork will be retained for 7 years after employment has ended.

Big Voices Childcare Services LTD may also be legally required to share details of dismissal or termination of employment with Disclosure Scotland, Care Inspectorate and Scottish Social Services Council.

We will not use any personal data for any purpose other than those outlined above.

Who has access to data?

Your information will be shared internally, with both Partners and Senior Staff if access to the data is necessary for performance of your role.

Big Voices Childcare Services LTD will also share your data with third parties in order to obtain and provide pre-employment references from other employers, obtain necessary criminal records checks from the Disclosure Scotland Service.

We will also be required to share your details with the Scottish Social Services Council when you apply for or renew your registration with them. Big Voices Childcare Services LTD may also be obliged to make a referral to SSSC or Disclosure Scotland as part of the Discipline, Performance or Absence Management process.

Big Voices Childcare Services LTD also shares your data with third parties that process data on its behalf in connection with payroll, IT and telecommunications, regulatory bodies, the provision of benefits, training, health and safety and the provision of occupational health services.

- Redacting any information regarding the identity of the individual where appropriate.

Where Big Voices Childcare Services LTD engages third parties to process personal data on its behalf, they do so on the basis of written instructions, are under a duty of confidentiality and are obliged to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of data.

For how long does Big Voices Childcare Services LTD keep data?

We will hold your personal data during and after the end of employment as set out in the relevant retention periods, outlined in the Data Protection Policy.

Your rights

As a data subject, you have a number of rights. You can:

- access and obtain a copy of your data on request;
- require Big Voices Childcare Services LTD to change incorrect or incomplete data;
- require Big Voices Childcare Services LTD to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing; and
- Object to the processing of your data where Big Voices Childcare Services LTD is relying on its legitimate interests as the legal ground for processing.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact Laura Hopkins or Nicola Gracey, Business Partners & Childcare Co-Ordinators, who have been appointed as persons with responsibility for data protection compliance within Big Voices Childcare Services LTD. They can be contacted at bigvoicesooscenquiries@outlook.com Questions about this policy, or requests for further information, should be directed to them.

If you believe that Big Voices Childcare Services LTD has not complied with your data protection rights, you can complain to the Information Commissioner.

What if you do not provide personal data?

You have some obligations under your employment contract to provide Big Voices Childcare Services LTD with data. In particular, you are required to report absences from work and may be required to provide information about disciplinary or other matters under the implied duty of good faith. You may also have to provide us with data in order to exercise your statutory rights, such as in relation to statutory leave entitlements.

Failing to provide the data may mean that you are unable to exercise your statutory rights.

Certain information, such as contact details, your right to work in the UK and payment details, have to be provided to enable Big Voices Childcare Services LTD to enter a contract of employment with you. If you do not provide this information, this will hinder Big Voices Childcare Services LTD ability to administer the rights and obligations arising as a result of the employment relationship efficiently.
